VOLUNTEERS DELIVER MIRACLE BEARS TO KIDS AT ST. LUKE'S CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

- WHO: Volunteers from Kid For A Night Committee.
- WHAT: Delivering "Miracle Bears" to patients at St. Luke's Children's Hospital
- WHERE: Meet Catie Holm in the St. Luke's Boise main lobby at 9:45 a.m.
- WHEN: 10:00 a.m., Thursday, June 8, 2006
- WHY: Miracle Bears are beautiful custom stuffed animals created by local volunteers. The bears are part of a fundraising auction at Kid For A Night, St. Luke's annual fundraising event for the Children's Hospital that took place June 2. More than fifty donors chose to donate their bears back to kids in the hospital. Thursday's visit will be from the volunteer committee who organized this year's Kid For a Night event.
